

PRESS RELEASE

Hoofddorp, December 4, 2018

Save the date and showcase your talent at inJazz: application form now open!

Attention to all Dutch musicians and composers: the application for inJazz 2019 is now open! The leading Dutch jazz network event of the year, an initiative of Buma. InJazz will take place on Thursday 27 and Friday 28 June in Rotterdam, the Netherlands.

Audience and payments

Dutch acts that apply will be considered for an official performance in the leading Dutch jazz network event of the year, an initiative of Buma. InJazz offers Dutch acts the chance to showcase their talent for an international network consisting of programmers, record labels, managers, bookers, journalists and other significant persons in the international jazz scene. The payments by Buma for the showcases at inJazz are € 250 per artist with a maximum of € 1,250 at the most for a group.

Professional committee and recordings

A committee consisting of professionals (labels, radio, programmers) will pick a selection of Dutch acts from the entries. InJazz also makes sure all performances will be professionally recorded (including rights). Bands will receive this recording after inJazz. A lot of the tracks will be broadcasted on national and international radio stations.

InJazz: 27 & 28 June in Rotterdam, NL

InJazz transforms the city of Rotterdam into the European capital of jazz and beyond. Holland's celebrated showcase, conference and network event will make Rotterdam the place to be on Thursday 27 and Friday 28 June. With talent and ambition as tall as the city's skyscrapers young musicians will show their skills on one of the nights during the festival programme at LantarenVenster and Kantine Walhalla. At the conference programme on 28 June they can seek advice, tips and pointers from Europe's most knowledgeable professionals in the business. Panels, matchmaking sessions, workshops and presentations will give them all the information to pursue a successful career. As usual the inspirational inJazz event will also serve as the prelude for a two-week jazz dream: North Sea Round Town and the NN North Sea Jazz Festival.
